

Date: February 12, 2008, Monday
Media: The Business Times, Singapore

Column: Views From The Top
Page: 10

Headline: Reach Out To The Needy

---

THE BUSINESS TIMES

Dhirendra Shantilal

Senior Vice-President, Asia Pacific
Kelly Services

EXTERNALLY-CAUSED inflation factors like high fuel prices, droughts or floods that affect basic food prices are tough to be controlled at the national level. But internally, we could look into managing rising government housing prices as well as managing public wage inflations and public transportation costs.